WHY DO BOOKSHOPS MATTER? HOW DO THEY FILTER OUR IDEAS AND LITERATURE? IN BOOKSHOPS, AN INVENTIVE AND HIGHLY ENTERTAINING ESSAY, CARRIÓN TAKES US ON A JOURNEY AROUND THE WORLD VIA ITS BOOKSHOPS. HIS TRAVELS PROVOKE ENCOUNTERS WITH THINKERS, POETS, DREAMERS, REVOLUTIONARIES AND READERS.

JORGE CARRIÓN is a Spanish writer, academic and literary critic. He studied at Pompeu Fabra University in Barcelona, where he is currently the Director of the MA in Creative Writing. His published works include essays, novellas, novels and travel writing, and his articles have appeared in numerous publications, including The New York Times en Español, El País, National Geographic and Lonely Planet Magazine. Bookshops, recently published by MacLehose Press, was a finalist in the Premio Anagrama de Ensayo, 2013. His work has been translated into ten languages.

Jorge Carrión's events in Australia are supported by Acción Cultural Española (AC/E) through the Programme for the Internationalisation of Spanish Culture (PICE), within the framework of the Mobility grants, BSM-UPF, AILASA, The Wheeler Centre, Paperchain Bookstore, ANU, Instituto Cervantes, Gleebooks, Embassy of Spain, Consulate-General of Spain (Melbourne), La Trobe University.
